UJIMA NETWORK BLACK HISTORY MONTH SCHOLARSHIP

DEADLINE Friday December 9, 2016

$2,500 Scholarship Awards for currently enrolled full-time undergraduates

This scholarship recognized academic and creative achievement in the study of African Americans, their history and culture through either a research paper or publicly presented creative work or presentation.

Online Application available at ucsd.academicworks.com

Applications are due by Friday December 9, 2016

The scholarship requires a letter of recommendation/nomination. The letter of recommendation should be from a UCSD Faculty member who is familiar with your project. When you submit your application online at ucsd.academicworks.com you will be prompted to enter the name of the UCSD Faculty member.

Application Instructions:

This year we are using an online scholarship application and nomination form available at ucsd.academicworks.com. Please complete the following items to be considered for this scholarship:

• Please complete the General Application.
• Please answer the Supplemental Questions.
• Please provide the name and UCSD email address for a UCSD Faculty member, who can speak about your project or presentation and recommend you for this scholarship.
• Please notify your Faculty member to expect an email from Academic Works. The Faculty member will be notified to log into the Academic Works system and answer some questions about you and describe your project.

These are all requirements for this scholarship. Applications received without this critical information will not be considered for the scholarship.

All questions should be emailed to scholarships@ucsd.edu.
