More than a scholarship, the Chancellor’s Associates Scholars Program (CASP) is committed to supporting you and developing you as a scholar by providing you a range of services and opportunities to help you engage and thrive in academics, student life, and university experiences through graduation.

Program benefits and commitments:
- Individualized financial aid and academic counseling
- Summer program
- Mentorship
- CASP Course for credit – EDS 50 & 150 (1 unit for freshman and 2 units for transfer students)
- Guaranteed on-campus housing (provided all deadlines are met)
- Priority enrollment
- Extended library privileges

Important program event dates – Mark these dates on your calendar, as your attendance is expected as a Chancellor’s Associate Scholar:
(All programs are at NO COST to you)

- CASP 101 – Wednesday, July 27, 2016 – Friday, July 29, 2016 (overnight)
  An extensive three day, two night residential overnight program that will outline all of the scholarship program components and your commitments to maintain eligibility for the scholarship – academic advising, financial aid planning, mentorship program, and other program commitments. Part of the final day of the program will be an opportunity for your family members to come and meet the staff and faculty that will work and support you throughout your time at UC San Diego.

- Welcome Week Academic Year Kick-Off – Week of September 19 – 23, 2016
  A celebration for all current and new CASP students to kick off the academic year! Come meet the entire Chancellor’s Associates Scholars community.

- EDS 50 (freshman) & EDS 150 (transfers)– CASP Course (Fall 2016 Quarter only)
  A course designed to frame a discussion around what it means to be a student in a scholarly setting, thinking critically, and thrive in a rigorous academic environment.

- Peer Mentorship Program – throughout the academic year of your first year at UC San Diego.
- Academic Advising Appointments – Two per quarter your first year, and one per quarter in your second year. As needed for the remainder of your time at UC San Diego.
- Other Expectations – As a Chancellor’s Associate Scholar, we will expect that all students make an effort to review the UC San Diego Principles of Community.
- All official communication is sent to your UCSD email address, as well as our monthly newsletter to which you will be subscribed.
